

Revenue Cycle Services

WE VIEW YOUR REVENUE CYCLE DIFFERENTLY. Your revenue cycle is a series of interconnected, highly-synergistic processes. It is rarely possible to address one area within the cycle without discovering opportunities in another. While other firms may have a single area of emphasis in their revenue cycle services—e.g. coding or A/R, Pyramid’s focus is on the entire continuum.

Pyramid provides services that support the entire process and result in a healthy revenue cycle. Our clients benefit from seamless service, access to a variety of skilled resources from a single source and outstanding customer support. Continuity in project management, and scalable, cost-efficient staffing models are available to target your specific needs and revenue goals.

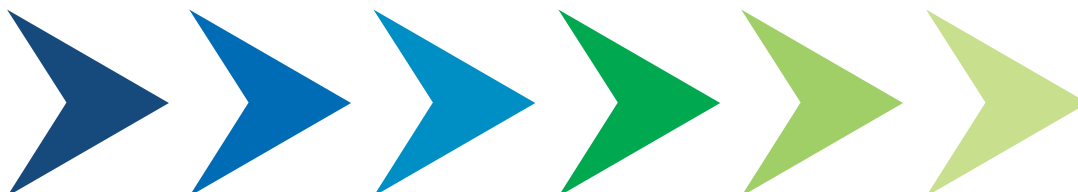

"I consistently use the following phrases: 'professional, committed to excellence, results-oriented and a positive part of the team.' They understand the 'big picture' and have the expertise to drill down to the detail needed to achieve the desired result. Their efforts have helped us to improve net revenue by millions of dollars."

"Another question I am often asked is, "Would you hire them, again? The answer is a resounding YES!"
